Pashmina Wraps

Pashmina wraps are the epitome of winter outfits for women, which transmit whispers of luxury meets to your attire. Here is how to style it differently:

Styling Tips

Be bold with interesting colours or complex patterns reflecting your personality; you will stand out in any crowd.

Begin with a form-fitting turtleneck and pair it with high-waisted jeans or tailored pants for an appropriate silhouette.

Try wrapping the wrap in a few different ways-from boho with a flowing wrap to chic with a tuck tucked. Check out TCG London's Cashmere and Silk Pashmina Stole in a wide variety of colours to partner your final look.

Go for a more dramatic handbag and minimal jewellery so the dress wraps have all eyes on your ensemble.

Classic Cashmere Turtleneck

One of the most effortlessly classy winter looks can be created by pairing a fitted cashmere turtleneck with your pants. The overall look provides both comfort and elegance, making it great for work and more formal events.

Styling Tips

Choose a soft, luxurious cashmere turtleneck in a high-quality colour-a navy, black, or cream. This will be sure to add some class touch to any outfit.

Choose tailored trousers that fit your body type-the high-waisted kind can elongate legs, and create a sleek silhouette. Look at TCG London's Loose Fit mens cashmere gloves With Turnback Cuffs.

Add a long wool coat in any neutral for warmth and glamour. A belted coat will really cinch in at the waist for an even more flattering version.

End with loafers or pointed-toe flats for the sophisticated look. Then, to layer you can choose sleek ankle boots.

Cashmere Beanie and Gloves

Transform your winter wardrobe with cashmere beanies and gloves—ideal accessories that combine warmth and style. Crafted from soft, luxurious fabric, these pieces bring an elegant touch to any winter outfit for women while keeping you snug throughout the cold months.

Styling Tips

Opt for cashmere in deep blue colour, or even so with a tint of forest green or grey. There's this texture that reminds you to touch it—that is, it's soft to the skin. The fashion it takes is just perfect with how classy it is.

Utilise your matching cashmere beanie and gloves coupled with the use of your pashmina scarf for an overall neat and coordinated look. You can glance over TCG London Scottish Cashmere PomPom Cable Beanie and Scottish Cashmere Gloves that presents an integrated winter ensemble both functionally and stylishly.

You can mix the feel by combining textures with other materials. You could pair them with a wool coat or a chunky knit sweater for an eclectic comfortable look.

Outfit Inspiration

Casual Look: Large knit sweater with dark-washed jeans. Add a cashmere beanie, gloves, and a great pashmina scarf to finish the outfit off.

Smart Casual: When paired over a fitted turtleneck, a tailored wool coat paired in harmonious tones with cashmere accessories and slick ankle boots does the trick.

Some cashmere beanies and gloves will withstand the chilliest winter weather but keep your sense of style bursting with colour.

Layered Pashmina Poncho

A pashmina poncho is quite the versatile winter staple that makes warmth and style go hand-in-hand so easily. Perfect for layering, this piece will totally elevate any winter outfit for women while you're keeping cosy through more freezing days.

Style Tips

Choose a good-quality pashmina poncho in a nice colour or interesting pattern. Look for ones with lots of fine details such as fringed edges or embroidery that add a little playfulness.

Layer the poncho under a fitted long-sleeve top. The fitted long-sleeve top creates a more streamlined silhouette and offers extra warmth. Turtlenecks and other lightweight sweaters are good alternatives as a style base layer.

Pair it with some skinny jeans to level out the volume of the poncho. Dark wash will give you an un-stretchy look, whereas the lighter shades add a casual touch. Check out TCG London's 100% Pure Lambswool Poncho in dark stone colour.

This can be finalised with the knee-high over-the-knee boots which create a height and sophistication. Try out a heeled version for a more polished look or sometimes with flats.

Casual evening: Charcoal pashmina poncho over a fitted black turtleneck, distressed skinny jeans, and taupe over-the-knee boots.

Weekend Brunch: For a bohemian-chic look, layer an interestingly patterned poncho over a cream-coloured long-sleeved top paired with dark skinny jeans, and complete it with a wide-brimmed fedora for a really chic look.
